

Merry Christmas!
May the love of Jesus fill your heart and home
this season and always.

REHOBOTH SPRINGS

@rehobothsprings.ca

Jesus Now More Than Ever!

Christmas is here again — a season of joy, love, and giving.

The streets are adorned with twinkling lights, homes are filled with warmth, and the sound of carols fills the air. But amidst the celebration, let us pause and reflect: What is Christmas really about?

www.rehobothsprings.ca

JESUS

Over 2,000 years ago, in a quiet stable in Bethlehem, a Savior was born. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, came into the world not in grandeur but in humility. His birth marked the beginning of the greatest love story ever told — God reaching down to humanity with the gift of salvation.

Today, more than ever, the world needs to hear this message of hope. Families are hurting, hearts are broken, and many feel lost and alone. The noise of the world often drowns out the still, small voice of God. Yet, Jesus came to bring peace to troubled souls, light to those walking in darkness, and joy to the weary.

The essence of Jesus coming into this world is to set people free from sin, including you. So, as we celebrate Christ's birth at Christmas, it is important to remember that in every celebration, the celebrant ought to be the most joyful. What truly brings joy to Jesus is your repentance from sin. If you haven't yet, this Christmas is the perfect time to make that change. That is when celebrating Christ will truly bring Him joy. If you love Jesus (as most celebrants today claim), then we should live free from sin, for that was the main reason for His coming to the world: to save people from their sins. If you are still living in sin, celebrating Christ loses its meaning. Turn to Him, so that your celebration reflects His joy. Make Christ happy this Christmas by rededicating your life to Him. If you are in good standing with Christ, share His love with others. People need Jesus. Yes, people need Jesus NOW MORE THAN EVER!

"Who can add to Christmas? The perfect motive is that God so loved the world. The perfect gift is that He gave His only Son. The only requirement is to believe in Him. The reward of faith is that you shall have everlasting life." — Corrie Ten Boom

Jesus is not just the reason for the season; He is the answer for every season of life. In Him, we find:

- Hope when the world feels uncertain.
- Love that never fails or fades.
- Peace that surpasses understanding.
- Joy that no circumstance can take away.

This Christmas, let us remember that the gift of Jesus is not one to be kept hidden. It is a gift to be shared with everyone around us. Like the shepherds who could not contain their excitement and the wise men who traveled far to worship Him, we are called to spread the good news.

How can we share Jesus this Christmas?

Through Our Words: Speak words of encouragement, share your testimony, or invite someone to a Christmas service.

Through Our Actions: Show kindness to a neighbor, give to someone in need, or offer your time to listen and care.

Through Our Prayers: Intercede for those who are hurting, for families in crisis, and for hearts to be open to the love of Christ.

As we celebrate Christmas, let us not forget that Jesus is the greatest gift. He came for you, for me, and for the entire world. His love knows no boundaries, and His arms are open wide.

This Christmas Day, let us boldly declare: "Jesus, now more than ever." In a world searching for answers, let us point to the One who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Let us share the light of Christ, bringing hope, peace, and love to a world that desperately needs it.

"For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." — Isaiah 9:6